WYOMING FIRE CHIEFS' ASSOCIATION

Annual Membership Information

January 1, 2026 - December 31, 2026

Wyoming Fire Chiefs' Association Constitution and Bylaws: Article II, Membership

Section 3. Membership and Membership Privileges

The individual membership of the Association shall consist of:

A. Regular Members

Regular members shall include:

1. The chief of the department, past chiefs, and officers of a regularly organized public, governmental, or industrial fire department; fire marshal; fire commissioners and/or fire directors who devote time to administration and firefighting operations.

2. Individuals interested in the affairs of the WFCFA and the fire service who are employed by (or members of) a fire department, or emergency medical services or equivalent emergency-services delivery agency, or work for an agency which performs direct services in support of a fire department's primary missions (e.g., local or state safety code enforcement, federal, state or local fire service training delivery agencies).

Regular members, who maintain current dues-paying status shall be entitled to hold elective office, serve on the board of directors and vote on all matters requiring a vote of the general membership unless otherwise prohibited herein. New regular members shall be entitled to voting privileges fifteen (15) days after receipt of initial membership dues.

B. Members other than Regular Members

1. Life Members

- a) Life members shall include Regular members who have retired from the fire service and who have been a member continuously for a period of at least ten (10) years.
- b) Life members are not required to pay dues but may be charged for association services.
- c) Application for life membership shall be made to the executive secretary of WFCFA.
- d) Life membership shall not be conferred or continued for individuals who are eligible to be a regular member of the Association through their employment or involvement with the fire service.
- e) Life members shall be entitled to vote on all matters requiring a vote, but are not eligible to hold elective office or serve on the board of directors.
